A PRAYER FOR AN END TO THIS PANDEMIC: Gracious Heavenly Father, Creator and Preserver of all things, we come before Your throne of grace on behalf of our families and friends, ourselves and all in our world who feel the fear of contracting the COVID-19 disease that is spreading quickly. Strengthen our bodies and spirits, that we might be spared this sickness. Give wisdom and knowledge to doctors, nurses and all who provide care for the sick and suffering as well as to our world's leaders who bear responsibility for their citizens. If it is Your will, heal those who are suffering from infection and bring the spread of this virus to a swift end. Throughout all days of trial, remind us of Your great love and the forgiveness and salvation earned for us by Your Son, Jesus Christ. In His name we pray. Amen.

YOU CAN BE OF SERVICE AND AN ENCOURAGEMENT TO OTHERS! During these uncertain times, you can be of service to other members of Trinity and members of our community without leaving your home.

- Look through our directory for our members who are elderly, home bound, living in an assisted living facility or a nursing home. Send them a note or card or have your children draw pictures (maybe even include a picture of your child or family). You can become their pen pal
- You could also give them a simple phone call and share a Psalm or other bible reading and a prayer
- Send notes of encouragement to teachers. We have many members who teach here at Trinity, Lutheran High and our local public schools.
- Pray for families and teachers as they finish out this school year with on-line learning
- Pray for all essential workers and their safety
- Pray for our country and leaders to make God-pleasing decisions

1 Peter 1:18-19 - "Knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot." We have been ransomed - bought back from the slavery into which we were born. We do not belong to ourselves, or to the devil, or to the world. We belong to Jesus. Therefore, we live our lives not in accordance with our own wisdom but in line with God's Word.

Church Update

We continue to offer the Divine Service by sign-up throughout the week (10 people at time, including pastor and pianist). This is in accord with state and CDC guidelines. To sign up go to our website www.trinitysheboygan.org and click on COVID-19 Service Information and then go to the sign up line in the letter and you will see dates and times to attend. Or, you may call the church office to sign up.

Live-streaming of the Divine Service continues as usual at 8am and 10:45am on Sundays and 6:30pm Mondays. You can also watch it recorded at a time that works for you. Simply go to our website www.trinitysheboygan.org and click on either "service live-stream" or "recorded services" at the bottom of the webpage.

Pastor Berg is still limited in what he can do per CDC guidelines. He is just fine but has a pre-existing condition (asthma) so he does not yet have the go ahead to meet in small groups of people. However, he is offering an Evening Prayer Service each Wednesday (he is in church alone). You can watch that service and his sermon by going to our website and clicking on "recorded services."

It looks as though the return to normal will be gradual. In the second phase of return, CDC guidelines recommend going from 10 people at a time to 50 people together at one time. We will continue to use the sign-up protocol for 50 people when phase two begins. In the third phase of return we will be able to simply go back to attending Divine Services without signing up but continuing to use proper precautions.

You may have noticed updates to our website. To find your way around you will see Trinity Lutheran at the top. To go to the church, school, or childcare page simply click on the church, school, or childcare tab. When you click on church, for example, you will then see tabs for the church bulletin, newsletter, etc. Check out the entire website and the great things going on at Trinity!

CHURCH OFFICE/SCHOOL OFFICE HOURS: The church/school offices are running on shortened hours with some work being done at home. Monday-Thursday, the church office is open 8am-12:30pm, closed on Fridays. The school office is open Monday-Thursday 8am-2p and closed on Fridays. These hours may vary from day to day. We are, however, able to check our messages at home.

LHS AUCTION MOVING ONLINE ONLY: Lutheran High's annual auction will be an Online Bidding Only auction over the weekend of May 16. Due to the current circumstances, LHS will not host the dinner portion or the preview night activities. Instead, a link will be posted on the LHS homepage in the near future and we hope that all supporters will enjoy viewing all auction items and bidding from the comfort of their homes. Please watch for details in the coming weeks.

Introit

Behold, how good and pleas- | ant it is*
when brothers dwell in | unity!

It is like the precious oil on the head, running down on the beard, on the beard of | Aaron,

running down on the collar | of his robes!

It is like the dew of Hermon, which falls on the mountains of | Zion!

For there the LORD has commanded the blessing, life for- | evermore.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

when brothers dwell in | unity!

Collect of the Day

O God, through the humiliation of Your Son You raised up the fallen world. Grant to Your faithful people, rescued from the peril of everlasting death, perpetual gladness and eternal joys; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Christ has risen | from the dead.*

[God the Father] has crowned him with glory and | honor,
He has given him dominion over the works | of his hands;*
he has put all things un- | der his feet.

Readings for next Sunday: Acts 2:42-47; 1 Peter 2:19-25; John 10:1-10

Acts 2:14a, 36–41 ¹⁴But Peter, standing with the eleven, lifted up his voice and addressed them, ³⁶“Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.” ³⁷Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?” ³⁸And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself.” ⁴⁰And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation.” ⁴¹So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

1 Peter 1:17–25 ¹⁷And if you call on him as Father who judges impartially according to each one’s deeds, conduct yourselves with fear throughout the time of your exile, ¹⁸knowing that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your forefathers, not with perishable things such as silver or gold, ¹⁹but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without blemish or spot. ²⁰He was foreknown before the foundation of the world but was made manifest in the last times for your sake, ²¹who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God. ²²Having purified your souls by your obedience to the truth for a sincere brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart, ²³since you have been born again, not of perishable seed but of imperishable, through the living and abiding word of God; ²⁴for “All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, ²⁵but the word of the Lord remains forever.” And this word is the good news that was preached to you.

Luke 24:13–35 ¹³That very day two of them were going to a village named Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, ¹⁴and they were talking with each other about all these things that had happened. ¹⁵While they were talking and discussing together, Jesus himself drew near and went with them. ¹⁶But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. ¹⁷And he said to them, “What is this conversation that you are holding with each other as you walk?” And they stood still, looking sad. ¹⁸Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?” ¹⁹And he said to them, “What things?” And they said to him, “Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, ²⁰and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. ²¹But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. ²²Moreover, some women of our company amazed us. They were at the tomb early in the morning, ²³and when they did not find his body, they came back saying that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. ²⁴Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said, but him they did not see.” ²⁵And he said to them, “O foolish ones, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken! ²⁶Was it not necessary that the Christ should suffer these things and enter into his glory?” ²⁷And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. ²⁸So they drew near to the village to which they were going. He acted as if he were going farther, ²⁹but they urged him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, for it is toward evening and the day is now far spent.” So he went in to stay with them. ³⁰When he was at table with them, he took the bread and blessed and broke it and gave it to them. ³¹And their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And he vanished from their sight. ³²They said to each other, “Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked to us on the road, while he opened to us the Scriptures?” ³³And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, ³⁴saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!” ³⁵Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Notes on Today’s Service

Treasures from the Church: “Only when Jesus opens up the Scriptures, and finally opens their eyes in the breaking of the bread, do these two men see before them Jesus Christ, crucified and risen.” – From Heaven on Earth: The Gifts of Christ in the Divine Service, Arthur A. Just Jr., Concordia Publishing House: St. Louis, p. 81

Summary of the Readings: From “before the foundation of the world” until heaven and earth pass away, “the word of the Lord remains forever” (1 Peter 1:20, 25). This “living and abiding word of God” is the preaching of Christ Jesus, namely that God “raised him from the dead and gave him glory” (1 Peter 1:21, 23). By this living word, we “have been born again” to eternal life (1 Peter 1:23) and ransomed from our sinful and mortal life “with the precious blood of Christ” (1 Peter 1:18–19). This living word also calls us to repentance, to dying and rising in Holy Baptism “in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins” (Acts 2:38). In this, we receive the Holy Spirit “for you and for your children and for all who are far off” (Acts 2:39). Through the preaching of His cross and resurrection, Jesus draws near to bring us “into his glory” (Luke 24:26). As He opens the Scriptures, He opens our minds to comprehend “the things concerning himself” (Luke 24:27), and He brings us to know Him “in the breaking of the bread” (Luke 24:35).

The Divine Service – The Effect of the Word of God in the Liturgy: “Thomas had his doubts. And that’s a bit of an understatement! ‘Unless I see,’ said Doubting Thomas, ‘in His hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into His side, I will never believe.’ His faith had been weakened by the recent head-spinning events. And the fact that all of the Twelve had seen Jesus except Thomas weakened Thomas’s faith even more. He would not believe unless He could see for himself. The world treats the Christian faith like this. Unbelievers demand proof and signs. Believers simply have faith. But what is faith? The author of Hebrews teaches us that faith ‘is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.’ Thomas had not seen the Lord as the others had. He did not believe their word but wanted to see for himself. It is interesting that the whole world – even those who resist the faith – now believe in something unseen: a virus. Why? Because we see its effects. And we believe the word of the scientists who have studied such things. We believe that microscopes reveal a little spherical object that is unseen to the naked eye. And so, we take the experts at their word. Science is itself based on faith in the testimony of experts and in the scientific method. Of course, sometimes they get it wrong, but we generally believe them. Poor Thomas needed to see evidence of the resurrection. In His mercy, Jesus gives it to him. But our Lord also says: ‘Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed.’ We believe, that is, we trust the Word of God. We see its effects. The Gospel has ‘gone viral’ around the world. We believe those who have seen that the tomb of Jesus is empty. We have faith in God’s Word. Jesus says our sins are forgiven. Jesus says we have eternal life. And we have the sacraments that we can see with our eyes. Jesus comes to us and makes Himself known, by faith, using bread and wine, to miraculously join us. We hear His Word and we partake in the Sacrament, and we join Believing Thomas in confessing ‘My Lord and my God!’ We believe, and ‘by believing’ we ‘have life in His name.’” – Rev. Larry Beane

Sermon: Two disciples were on a road of sadness, disappointment, and dashed hopes. They were on this road because they trusted their eyes and not their ears. Instead of listening to what Jesus had told them and taking the road to Galilee where He said they would see Him, they took the road to Emmaus. They saw that Jesus had died so in their minds there was no reason to go to Galilee. So, Jesus joins them and travels with them down this road of sadness, disappointment, and dashed hopes, but keeps them from seeing Him with their eyes. “And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, He interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning Himself” (Luke 24:27). As the Lord’s word began to burn within them, they were seeing things in a whole new way, God’s way, the reality of the way things are. Right then and there, they were on the road back to God, back to life together with Him and one another.
