Prayer Upon Entering: Almighty God, by the glorious resurrection of Your Son, Jesus Christ, You destroyed death and brought life and immortality to light. Grant that we who have been raised with Him may abide in His presence and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory; through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Welcome: We cordially welcome you the Lord's Service to us this day. If you are worshipping with us for the first time, the following suggestions may be helpful to you:

- The Divine Service is printed on the panel. During the pandemic, please practice physically distancing as you enter, as you go to the altar for the Lord's Supper, and as you leave. Masks are available at each entrance if needed. You may either stand or kneel for the Lord's Supper.
- Hearing devices are available. Please ask an usher for assistance.
- The Music Room, the room to your right before entering the sanctuary, is available for parents with small children who need to step out during the service. The service is televised in the Music Room.
- The time before the service is a time of prayer and preparation to receive the gifts of salvation. In addition to prayer, look over the readings and the words to the hymns during this preparation time. A booklet entitled, "The Divine Service" located in the pew rack may also assist you in understanding worship at Trinity.
- Please turn off all cell phones and refrain from taking pictures during the service. Thank you.
- Visitors, please sign the guest register located in the Narthex.

Guests and the Lord's Supper: If you desire to commune, please speak to one of the pastors before the service. ## Service Music Notes

Psalm 1

<sup>1</sup>Blessèd is the man
who walks not in the counsel of the | wicked,*
nor stands in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the seat of | scoffers;

<sup>2</sup>but his delight is in the law | of the LORD,*
and on his law he meditates | day and night.

<sup>3</sup>He is like a tree
planted by streams of water
that yields its fruit in its season,
and its leaf does not | wither.*
In all that he does, he | prospers.

<sup>4</sup>The wicked | are not so,*
but are like chaff that the wind | drives away.

<sup>5</sup>Therefore the wicked will not stand in the | judgment,*
nor sinners in the congregation of the | righteous;

<sup>6</sup>for the LORD knows the way of the | righteous,*
but the way of the wicked will | perish.
Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;
as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Choir (during communion) The Strife is O'er

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The strife is o'er, the battle done;
Now is the Victor's triumph won;
Now be the song of praise begun, Alleluia!

The powers of death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed;
Let shouts of holy joy outburst, Alleluia!

The three sad days have quickly sped,
He rises glorious from the dead;
All glory to our risen Head! Alleluia!

He brake the age-bound chains of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise His triumph tell. Alleluia!

Lord, by the stripes which wounded Thee,
From death's dread sting Thy servants free,
That we may live and sing to Thee, Alleluia!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Acts 1:12-26 <sup>12</sup>Then [the apostles] returned to Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. <sup>13</sup>And when they had entered, they went up to the upper room, where they were staying, Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot and Judas the son of James. <sup>14</sup>All these with one accord were devoting themselves to prayer, together with the women and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers. <sup>15</sup>In those days Peter stood up among the brothers (the company of persons was in all about 120) and said, <sup>16</sup>"Brothers, the Scripture had to be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus. <sup>17</sup>For he was numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry." <sup>18</sup>(Now this man bought a field with the reward of his wickedness, and falling headlong he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out. <sup>19</sup>And it became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their own language Akeldama, that is, Field of Blood.) <sup>20</sup>"For it is written in the Book of Psalms, "'May his camp become desolate, and let there be no one to dwell in it'; and "'Let another take his office.' <sup>21</sup>So one of the men who have accompanied us during all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup>beginning from the baptism of John until the day when he was taken up from us—one of these men must become with us a witness to his resurrection." <sup>23</sup>And they put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was also called Justus, and Matthias. <sup>24</sup>And they prayed and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two you have chosen <sup>25</sup>to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place." <sup>26</sup>And they cast lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

1 John 5:9-15 <sup>9</sup>If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater, for this is the testimony of God that he has borne concerning his Son. <sup>10</sup>Whoever believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. Whoever does not believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has borne concerning his Son. <sup>11</sup>And this is the testimony, that God gave us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>12</sup>Whoever has the Son has life; whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life. <sup>13</sup>I write these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God that you may know that you have eternal life. <sup>14</sup>And this is the confidence that we have toward him, that if we ask anything according to his will he hears us. <sup>15</sup>And if we know that he hears us in whatever we ask, we know that we have the requests that we have asked of him.

John 17:11b-19 <sup>11b</sup>[Jesus said:] "Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. <sup>12</sup>While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. <sup>13</sup>But now I am coming to you, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves. <sup>14</sup>I have given them your word, and the world has hated them because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. <sup>15</sup>I do not ask that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. <sup>16</sup>They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. <sup>17</sup>Sanctify them in the truth; your word is truth. <sup>18</sup>As you sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup>And for their sake I consecrate myself, that they also may be sanctified in truth."

Notes on Today's Service

Church Year: "This Sunday in the Octave of the Feast of the Ascension is a transition to the Feast of Pentecost, to be observed in eight days. This Sunday is known as 'Exaudi' Sunday from the first words of the Introit 'Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud be gracious to me and answer me!' Exaudi marks a unique period in the life of the disciples. The promise of a new Comforter and Guide is still to be realized. The Lord has ascended, the Comforter has not yet descended. "Exaudi, O Lord, when I cry! Leave me not alone!" It is the time of waiting with the expectation founded on the promise of the victorious and glorified Christ." The Sermon and the Propers CPH p. 227

Today's Reading: Acts 1:12-26: Christ's ascension provides the backdrop for the entire book of Acts. This backdrop does not feature an absentee Lord but a Jesus who is very much present and active in His church. 1 John 5:9-15: God gave us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. John 17:11b-19: Jesus is in the Garden of Gethsemane. He is about to be arrested and parted from His disciples. He prays. Not for Himself, but for His disciples, for His Church.

Liturgy and Hymns: "The Liturgy is more like a perennial in the garden than an annual. Annuals are dug up at the end of the season and discarded and something new is planted in its place. So, it is with disposable liturgies that are here one Sunday and gone the next. But perennials are lovingly shaped and pruned, sometimes drastically, sometimes modestly, always carefully and with an eye towards the future. In the same way, the Liturgy is carefully shaped and pruned, using the best from the past and adding to it the best of the present for those who will come after us. We are neither the first to believe in Christ, nor, should the Lord delay in His appearing, will we be the last. We honor the saints who have fought the good fight of faith ahead of us and now cheer us on to our finish. And we are careful to hand on a tradition to our children that is faithful to the 'faith once delivered to the saints.'" Rev. William Cwirla, Didache, 3

Sermon: The prayer of Jesus that we hear today is of special importance because it is His final prayer before His arrest and crucifixion. And when time is short, you pray for what matters most. So, what is it that Jesus prays? "Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one." He prays that His disciples, His children, His Church, may be one. One, even as the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are united as one in the Holy Trinity. One, even as "a man leaves his father and mother and is united to his wife, and the two become one flesh." (Matt. 19:5) One, as the number that cannot be divided. A true and complete uniting.
